HONORING BLAINE'S MEMORY.
Memorial services held in the Assembly
Chamber at Sacramento.
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Memorial services were held in the Assembly Chamber of the Capitol today, commemorative of the death of James G. Blaine.
The desks of the Assemblymen had been removed and replaced by chairs, which were occupied long before the hour set for the exercises to begin.
The rostrum was fittingly draped in mourning. In the form of an arch, from the center of which hung a wreath of laurel.
Memorial resolutions, which were drawn up by a joint committee of both houses, were read and adopted.
A male choir of thirty voices sang "Not Dead but Sleeping." After an invocation by the Rev. J. L. Levy, a testimonial was read by Rev. R. B. B.
Newland, M.D., of San Francisco. Another resolution was rendered by the choir, and the memorial address was delivered by Senator G. G. Goucher.
Blaine's public career was reviewed in terms of the highest eulogy, and in closing the speaker said that it was fitting to lay a wreath plucked from the heart of the people on the grave of James Gillespie Blaine, on the anniversary of him who was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen. The choir sang again and the benediction was pronounced.

RAILROAD WRECKS.
They are Becoming Numerous—
Three in One Day.
Report That President Harrison Was in
One of Them Proves Untrue—
Number of Persons Killed
and Many Injured.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The southern express on the Pennsylvania road this morning
collided with an accommodation train in West Philadelphia. Three cars of the accommodation train were wrecked,
five persons killed and fifteen injured.
The names of the killed and injured are not yet learned.
An armor was quickly spread that it was President Harrison's special, but this proved untrue, as the special had already passed on its way to New York.
Those killed were in the last car of the accommodation train, which was crossing the track of the southern express, and was hit full in the middle by the engine of that train and which smashed it to pieces. The passengers on the express train were uninjured.
Cause of the accident.
The accident was due to the slippery condition of the tracks, making it impossible for the engineer of the express to control his train. Four persons were killed and ten injured, but none dangerously. The killed are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miner, Media, Pa.; Mary
Medley, Rev. James Walker, Lenox,
Mass.; and Rev. James Walker, Lenox, Mass.

DISASTER ON THE BURLINGTON.
Twelve Stockmen Severely Injured, But None Fatally.
OMAHA (Neb.), Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] A Bee special from Lincoln says: "Twelve stockmen were seriously injured in a wreck on the Burlington road near here today. They were riding in the caboose of the third section of an east-bound stock train waiting at Haverly for the west-bound extra. The engineer of the extra failed to head in on the switch, and fearing a collision, the engineer of the stock train reversed his engine and jumped.
The trains came together, and the stock train started backward without any one in the cab to guide the engine.
The engine of the extra failed to stop, and a half west of Haverly the runaway train crashed into the fourth section of the train, killing many cattle and demolishing the caboose in which the stockmen were riding. Twelve of them are painfully hurt, but it is not thought any of them will die."

Accident on the Fort Wayne Road.
FORT WAYNE (Ind.), Feb. 22.—The Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago express train, east bound, was derailed as it passed over a little river bridge one mile east of Columbia City today. The two rear coaches were turned on their sides and rolled down the river bank.
One man was killed and twenty persons injured. J. W. Paramore of Hebron, Ind., was killed. The wounded are J. W. Young of Fort Wayne; Dr.
John of Laude, Ind.; Susan Strayer of DeGraff, Ind.; Louise Kocher of Huntington, Ind.; a little child, Fort Wayne.

By Telegram to The Times.
LAKEWOOD (N. J.), Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Mr. Cleveland announced this evening that he had completed his Cabinet by the selection of Richard Olney of Boston for Attorney-General, and Hilary A. Herbert of Alabama for Secretary of the Navy.
Richard Olney is one of the leading practitioners at the Massachusetts bar.
He has not held any position or been prominent in political matters, but is known as one of the leading lawyers
and substantial citizens of Boston.
Cleveland's callers today were:
Daniel S. Lamont and Mrs. Lamont,
Father Larkin and Capt. P. G. Cunningham of Washington.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE.
Eight Trunk Lines Tied Up for Several Hours.
CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Switchmen and Attendants on the Chicago and Western Indiana Road went on a strike tonight.
As the road is a belt line, by which the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago,
Wabash, Chicago and Eastern Illinois,
Chicago and Erie, Grand Trunk and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe enter the city, not a train over those roads is able to leave the city tonight. The strikers this morning presented demands for an increase of 25 per cent. in wages to President Thomas and Superintendent Wader, of the belt line, and a long conference resulted. The officials were not ready to grant the men's demands immediately and another meeting was arranged for later in the day.
As late as 4 o'clock President Thomas declared that he would not strike, and switchmen still the same. Two hours later, without warning, and with no further developments in negotiations,
the men quit work and business was at a standstill.
The strikers do not exceed five hundred, but the probability is the strike may spread to other roads. The police were notified and a large force of men was sent to the yards to quell any possible disturbance.
The police were later reinforced by a detachment of Pinkerton men and a force of detectives and watchmen employed by the road. The latter began work on the switches, and belated trains were made up, and the last of them were sent out by midnight.
The prospects for a settlement of the difficulty are not bright, as President Thomas declares the men acted in bad faith with him and did not keep their agreement.

CAUSES A SENSATION.
The Assistant Cashier of an Atlanta Bank
Short $65,000.
ATLANTA (Ga.), Feb. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The disappearance
and defection of Assistant Cashier Redwine of the Gate City National Bank of this city is the biggest financial sensation Atlanta has known for years.
This morning a thorough examination of the bank's affairs was made by officers of the Clearing-house Association,
and they reported the defection
was about $65,000, certainly no more than that.
The clearing-house officers declare the bank can pay the depositors every cent, and can pay the stockholders in full. There is the greatest mystery about the affair of Redwine's disappearance.
Up to this time absolutely no
trace has been found of his whereabouts.
It is believed he has gone West.
Redwine was evidently living beyond his means for years. The bank officials believe Redwine has been behind for several years, but in small amounts. His position enabled him to cover up the shortages so they were never discovered.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION.
The First Congress of the National Society.
Present Membership.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The second continental congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution met this morning for the first general session, in the auditorium of the Church of Our Father.
A beautiful wreath, in memory of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who, at the time of her death, was president of the general society, called the congress to order and introduced Mrs. Hamilton, chaplain-general, who offered prayer.
A number of addresses were then made.
The report of Mrs. Boynton, vice-president-general in charge of the organization of chapters, showed that the society now has a total membership of 2700.
Machinists Strike.
RATON (N. M.), Feb. 22.—The machinists employed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway at Raton and Las Vegas went out on a strike at 4 o'clock
this afternoon.
Elections in Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 22.—Yesterday's elections resulted in the choice of Judge Bernard McKenna (Dem.) for Mayor.
The only Republican elected was Joseph Dennison, Treasurer. Allegheny City
elected W. M. Kennedy (Rep.) Mayor.

IT WAS ILLEGAL.
Illinois Auditors and Treasurers to Be Prosecuted for Pocketing Fees.
SPRINGFIELD (Ill.), Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Senate this morning the opinion of the Attorney-General, in response to the resolution
touching the fees of the State auditors, and taking interest on State funds by State treasurers, was presented.
The Attorney-General holds that the taking of $5000 yearly as heads of the Insurance Department, and $5 per day
as members of the State Board of Equalization, in addition to their salaries as auditors by the auditors, and converting to their own use the interest of public moneys by the State treasurers, is clearly illegal, and that the State can recover any sums so illegally taken.
WILL INSTITUTE PROCEEDINGS.
He informed the Senate that he will
this week institute proceedings against ex-State Treasurer Wilson to recover the interest on public funds taken by him, but hesitates to begin suits against the other delinquent officials because of lack of sufficient evidence to carry the cases through successfully. He asked the Senate to make an investigation so as to bring out evidence against these officials, to the end that they might be proceeded against. Resolutions to this end were presented, but laid over till tomorrow.

THE DEFEATED CHAMPION.
Believed He Was Drugged Just Before
He Fought Corbett.
St. Louis, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Lee Townsend, one of the men who backed John L. Sullivan in his fight with Corbett, declares his belief that John L. was drugged. They had been examined by a physician the morning of the fight and he pronounced him sound. As soon as he came into the ring the same physician said there was something wrong with him. Townsend believes a dose was given him in the last meal he ate, as it, in some way, escaped inspection before being sent to him.
Bank Robbers Captured.
LEWISBURG (Pa.), Feb. 22.—Two of the men who attempted to rob the bank
last night, and who killed Councilman Shaffer, have been captured. They give the names of Dr. Charles Spreng and Francis Murphy.
Spreng and Murphy, the bank robbers, who killed Councilman Shaffer last night, were removed to the jail at Kittanning this afternoon. On the way to the station and again at Kittanning,
an excited mob followed the prisoners,
and twice attempted to lynch them.
The people went wild with frenzy, and fears are entertained that they will yet attack the jail.

Michigan Republicans.
DETROIT (Mich.), Feb. 22.—The Republican State Convention met here to nominate a supreme court justice and two university regents. After close deliberation the convention adjourning till this afternoon.
In the afternoon the following nominations were made and adjournment was taken: For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge Frank A. Hooker;
for regents of the State University,
Frank W. Fletcher of Alpena, and Dr.
Herman Kiefer of Detroit.

Anniversary Banquet.
DETROIT (Mich.), Feb. 22.—The Michigan Club tonight gave its eighth anniversary banquet celebrating the birthday of Washington.
Over one thousand persons were present in the Auditorium, which was hand-somerly decorated. A large number of prominent men sent letters of regret, among them President Harrison and members of his Cabinet. After close deliberation a glowing tribute was paid to the memory of James G. Blaine.

Bearing Mitchell Stock.
NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The impression that Puggist Charles Mitchell is endeavoring to find a loophole through which to crawl out of a match with Champion Jim Corbett is gaining ground among the sporting gentry here, and numerous agents at 8 to 5 odds have already been made that the Britisher will not enter the ring with Corbett. If Mitchell tries to avoid a match on Saturday, Brady says he will immediately drop him and make a match with Peter Jackson.

Under Water.
POINT DEPOSIT (Md.), Feb. 22.—Half of this place is under water and the other half is covered with blocks of ice, driftwood and wreckage. The homeless residents are quartered in houses built on the sides of the mountain.

Tendered and Accepted.
BROOKVILLE (Pa.), Feb. 22.—George
A. Jenks, who was Solicitor-General
during Cleveland's first administration, has been tendered and has accepted the position of Attorney-General under his second administration.
Johnson Investigation.
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 22.—The Johnson Investigation was continued today and at the conclusion of the argument the committee adjourned to hold an executive session tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Schooners Seized.
SAN DIEGO, Feb. 22.—Two schooners
from this port have been seized by Mexican customs officers at San Quintin, and are held there pending investigation.
Earthquake Shock.
WINTERS (Cal.), Feb. 22.—There was a pronounced shock of earthquake here last night at 8:20, sufficient to scare folks. No damage was done.
Praying Now, Fighting Later.
LONDON, Feb. 22.—Prayers against the Home-Rule Bill are being offered in all Protestant churches in the diocese of Down in Ulster.
Still Mesmerized.
HELENA (Mont.), Feb. 22.—The Senatorial ballot today gave Mantle, 27;
Clark, 21; Dixon, 11; others, scattering.
The Pope's Presents.
ROME, Feb. 22.—The jubilee presents
in money already received by the Pope amount to £ 7,000,000.

The Dreadful Storm Covers New England, New York and Pennsylvania—
Trains With Five Engines
Covered in Drifts.
By Telegram to The Times.
NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Throughout the States of New England and Pennsylvania a fierce blizzard today is raging.
In this city a heavy snowfall this afternoon gave place to a gale, which banked and drifted the snow badly.
Train service in many localities is suspended, and some roads are entirely abandoned. All regular trains on the Boston and Albany are abandoned.
From all over Massachusetts the reports of damage and storm are reported. In New England life disasters are reported.

The storm promises to be more disastrous than the blizzard of four years ago. On the New York and New England Railroad travel was almost at a standstill all day. In Pennsylvania matters were even worse. Railroads were everywhere blocked. Deep snow enforced idleness at every mine in the anthracite regions. A brisk wind is drifting snow badly in all quarters.
Trains attempting to move have from two to five engines. Even then a number are abandoned. The country roads are closed by deep drifts, and farmers have to pick their way across the fields.
The passenger train on the Reading and Lancaster due at Lancaster this morning at 9 o'clock is stuck in a drift at Junction, and two engines sent to its assistance are fast in a six-foot bank at Peterburg.

GOV. MCKINLEY'S LOSSES.
Friends Take His Affairs in Hand, and Arrange Them.
CLEVELAND (O.), Feb. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] A plan for the adjustment of the financial affairs of Gov.
McKinley was decided upon today at a conference of some of the Governor's friends.
A statement received last night
showed he indorsed notes for Walker aggregating over $100,000. The total may be $118,000. Mr. Kohlsaat of Chicago, Col. Herrick and James Hoyt of this city and others attended the conference. Gov. McKinley expressed a desire to make an assignment of all his property, and Mrs. Mc-Kinley insisted upon doing the same with her property.
The plan finally decided upon was:
The Governor makes absolute assignment of all property to Kohlstaat, Herrick and Judge Day. In order, however, to satisfy Mrs. McKinley's persistent wish, a deed was executed by her, conveying her property to the trustees for the benefit of her husband's creditors. This deed was placed in the hands of Hon. M. A. Hanna of this city, to be dealt with in his discretion.
When the transfer was concluded,
Gov. McKinley said to the Associated Press representative: "There is little for me to say about the unfortunate affair. I did what I could to help a friend who befriended me, and the result is known. The amount of my indebtedness is in excess of anything I dreamed of. My property will be insufficient to satisfy my debts. What remains unpaid I shall execute my notes for and pay them as fast as I can."

New Portuguese Ministry.
LISBON, Feb. 22.—Ribiero, who was summoned by the King to form a cabinet after the resignation of the Ferreira Cabinet, has succeeded in the undertaking. The new ministry is announced as follows: Ribiero, Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Branco, Minister of the Interior; Azevedo, Minister of Justice; Col.
Pinto, Minister of War; Fuschini, Minister of Finance; Capt. Ferreira de Amaral, Minister of Marine and Colonies; Machado, Minister of Public Works.

Restoration of San Luis Mission.
SAN DIEGO, Feb. 22.—An evening paper states that a plan to restore the San Luis Rey Mission, in the southern part of this State, as a Franciscan monastery is about to be carried out. An entire monastery of priests and novices is coming in a few days from a Mexican mission, 100 in all, with more to follow as soon as the restorations are sufficiently advanced. Friar O'Keefe of Santa Barbara Monastery has been some months on the ground in charge
as superior of the new establishment.

Thought to be Incendiary.
PETALUMA (Cal.), Feb. 22.—At 8 o'clock this morning fire broke out in Derby's brick block. Soon after an explosion occurred which shook buildings all over town. Part of the roof of the burning building was blown out and landed on structures near by, damaging them. It is supposed the explosion was caused by powder placed in the building by an incendiary. The loss is $20,000, insurance, $4000.

The Panama Scandal.
PARIS, Feb. 22.—M. Franqueville, examining magistrate in the Panama
case, questioned Vallila and other Panama contractors today concerning Ar-ton and the sums received by them from the canal company. Subsequently he conferred with the Procureur General and conferred with him half an hour. It is reported that an important decision as to pressing the investigation will be made.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

PARK THEATER—The Streets of New York.

The old-time complacency of the Southern Church toward the iniquities of slavery is recalled by the fact that the Texas Christian Advocate approves of the recent burning of the negro Smith at Paris, Tex. It is a queer brand of religion they have in Texas.

It is said that a bill has been introduced in the Texas Legislature to legalize lynching. They might as well try to legalize anarchy and be done with it. When this is accomplished there will be no use for a form of government at all, and the Texas Legislature may adjourn sine die and forever.

It is said of Gen. Jubal A. Early, the unrepentant rebel, that he will not accept currency bearing the vignette of Gen. Grant. The incoming administration will be lacking in courtesy to Early and the solid South if it fails to provide currency with the vignettes of rebel generals and statesmen upon it. Such delicate sensibilities ought not to be rubbed.

COMPARISONS are aggravating, but we do feel as though we would like to say just one additional word in regard to our "glorious climate" as contrasted with that "go as it pleases" climate East, which for several months has been holding high jinks, culminating last night, as will be seen by Los Angeles dispatches, in the worst case of blizzard, snow and ice ever yet reported.

CONTROLLER KERWIN, of the Internal Revenue Department, has announced the intention to arrest on May 1 every Chinaman who has not registered under the Geary law. We shall then have a chance to test the long mooted question as to whether Uncle Sam or the Chinese Six Companies controls the Mongolian population of America. The event, falling on May day, will furnish a fine opportunity for a picnic.

It has been generally believed that the boom bacilli had all starved to death in this State during the past five years, but considerable apprehension is now felt at Los Angeles in regard to the possibility of the thing breaking out again. The symptoms are not yet very pronounced, but there is evidently something of that kind wriggling around in the systems of some people down there. [Fresno Republican.]

Our northern neighbors need not borrow any great amount of trouble about the contagion spreading in their direction. Hitherto their climate and the constitutions of their citizens have proved impervious to the inroads of the boom wiggles.

AN exchange observes that the determination of Cleveland not to live in the White House will probably result in having the building enlarged or a new one constructed, for the subject has been long discussed, and it would seem that some action must now be taken in regard to it. Curiously enough, however, Cleveland's objection to the mansion has nothing to do with matters of state or official convenience, his course having been determined solely by regard for Baby Ruth's health. Miss Ruth, therefore, will have the honor of being the direct cause of giving our future Presidents a palace equal to the needs and dignity of the office.

THE legal profession is going to be well represented in the executive branch of the forthcoming Government. Mr. Cleveland is a lawyer. His Secretary of State, Judge Gresham, is a lawyer. His Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Carlisle, is a lawyer. His Postmaster-General, Mr. Bissell, is his old law partner. His Secretary of the Interior, Hoke Smith, was a lawyer before he became a newspaper owner. His Secretary of War, the genial and peace-loving Mr. Lamont, is not wholly ignorant of the statutes. Considering, on top of this, that his Attorney-General, Olney, is, of course, a lawyer, it would seem that the Cleveland Cabinet will be able to give law points to the Supreme Court of the United States.

ACCORDING to the up-country press, Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, made a good hit in his character of "Uncle Tom." It is said that he really did some good acting, for a novice, on his first appearance. That he has a higher appreciation of the uses of the stage than some of the managers who have encouraged him in the step regardless of his fitness to tread the boards, is attested by a remark which he dropped after the performance: "There's a whole lot about this acting that I don't know anything about," said Peter, "but I must say I like it, and I think, maybe, some time, people will be glad to come and see me on the stage without the fighting business counting at all." If Jackson can make a legitimate success on his merits as an actor and thinks so much of the profession that he abandons pugilism altogether, the world will conclude that there is a good deal of the true man in him. His own instincts already teach him to denigrate the fictitious and reprehensible language which he receives from his audience as a fighter.

Another Observatory Coming West. Prof. Lewis Swift, director of the Warner Observatory at Rochester, N. Y., is one of the world's distinguished astronomers. During the past ten years he has discovered upward of nine hundred nebulae, or more than any other living observer, and he ranks next to Sir John Herschel in that department of work. He also divides the honors with Barnard and Brooks in the number of comets he has discovered. His principal telescope was, with one exception, the largest in America at the time it was ordered, having a clear aperture of sixteen inches. It is excellent in size at the present time by only five refracting telescopes.

But good instruments and a well-equipped observatory will not accomplish the best results without a clear sky and other favoring conditions. Prof. Swift has experienced so much annoying interference with the prosecution of his work on account of the large proportion of cloudy and hazy nights prevailing at Rochester, that he has determined to seek a new location where the atmospheric conditions will not entail such a loss of valuable time. He therefore desires to transfer his observatory to some far western location, where he will have a higher altitude and purer atmosphere.

With that end in view, he has been corresponding with several towns in Colorado, which are anxious to secure so great a prize, and more recently he has instituted inquiries with regard to facilities on the Sierra Madre Mountains, back of Pasadena. His opinion of this locality may be inferred from an incidental remark in a recent letter, in which he says: "I see that an effort is being made to have the Yerkes Observatory erected on Mt. Wilson, and I hope it will be crowned with success. There is not in the entire State of Illinois a suitable place for such an observatory."

In another letter Prof. Swift states that, while Mr. Warner, the donor of the great telescope, prefers Colorado for some reasons, he personally would be glad to locate near Los Angeles on account of the latitude—being 10° further south than his present location, and 18° further south than the point from which Sir William Herschel's observations were taken. This additional star zone of 15° surrounding the celestial sphere is rich in many objects of astronomical interest, and it is not commanded at present by any well-equipped observatory in the world. The most southern telescope in Europe of large capacity is the one at Nice, in the south of France, and that city is 7° further north than Los Angeles.

Prof. Swift is now considering the many points of mild and equable climate, large proportion of clear nights, purity of atmosphere, high altitude, low latitude and other advantages incident to a location on the summit of the Sierra Madre Mountains, which will soon be made accessible by the completion of the Pasadena mountain railway.

Some Observations on an Ass. With tongue out, knees elevated to the chin, and face purple with impotent rage, the crawling, cringing, time-serving sycophant who edits the San Pedro Custom-house to wit, Osborne, the anxious—or his hired man or some volunteer aid of Democratic instincts—labors all up and down the editorial page of his weak "Organ" to prove that The Times has at some time or other published articles on the political situation, and other public topics, that have been displeasing to the aforesaid person. Well, that is all true, and the laborious task of proving the fact is effort thrown away. As to the character of the articles which so afflict the pigmy of the Express, the editor of The Times has to say again that he assumes the responsibility for the editorials published in these columns, whether they be political or otherwise. There is no need to throw that responsibility upon other shoulders. These editorials have been published to the world, and we have no desire to conceal or to recall them; on the contrary, we stand by them; we shrink nothing.

As to the opinions of correspondents, "that is another story." The Times has always been in the habit of giving wide latitude to contributors in the matter of opinions expressed, and has published hundreds of columns of matter with which the editor has not agreed in sentiment. The department of "Letters to the Times" is a sort of free parliament, into which most anybody may enter who has ideas to express, and expresses them in clear, brief and proper language. Correspondents are responsible for their own opinions and statements. To refuse the people a hearing in the columns of their chosen newspaper would be bigoted, unfair and narrow—all same Express.

It is idle—worse than idle—for this person Osborne to print columns of weak and venomous editorial twaddle in the vain effort to prove that The Times has made political utterances which it is afraid to have reproduced at this time, or at any time. We are not of that stamp of journalists. Dig up the "offensive language"—but don't let it about it—and him it against the political horizon, that all men may read it for themselves.

Nobody but an ass, an irreclaimable, unteachable, hopeless ass—an ass constant and uninterrupted—an ass by day and by night, waking or sleeping—an ass twenty-four hours a day, and who would be more of an ass if there were more hours in a day—would resort to the senseless tactics of the Express.

But the time is soon coming when at least one ass will no longer be able to graze in the public pasture and bray like a blatant donkey from a public stall. "Sure!"

Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. President-elect Cleveland has completed his Cabinet by the appointment of Hilary A. Herbert of Alabama as Secretary of the Navy. The complete list is as follows:

Walter G. Gresham, Indiana, Secretary of State.
John G. Carlisle, Kentucky, Secretary of the Treasury.
Daniel Lamont, New York, Secretary of War.

Hilary A. Herbert, Alabama, Secretary of the Navy.
Hoke Smith, Georgia, Secretary of the Interior.

J. Sterling Morton, Nebraska, Secretary of Agriculture.
W. S. Bissell, New York, Postmaster-General.
Richard Olney, Massachusetts, Attorney-General.

OSBORNE, who edits a custom-house and thinks the country is the property of the Pretorian Guard, otherwise the Federal Brigade, loses his head and forgets himself when he gets into a rage, which is his customary condition nowadays. He assaults The Times for having republished a speech made by W. B. H. Miller (Mugwump) of Indiana, in 1873, attacking Gen. Grant, then the Republican nominee for the Presidency. Mr. Miller has since got back into the Republican fold sufficiently far to be made Attorney-General in the Cabinet of Mr. Harrison; and it is this fact, that disturbs the unsettled mind of the editor of the Custom-house. What are the facts? Miller attacked with exceptional bitterness and venom the first citizen, the first soldier and the first magistrate of his time—peerless and immortal Grant! He (Miller) went over to the enemy—he became a Greeley howler, a Dolly Varden crank—and assailed with gross injustice the character and actions of the Republican nominee for the Presidency. Los Angeles Times, in its loyalty and independence, reproduced Miller's speech as a matter of political history and to show the attitude of one of Mr. Harrison's Cabinet ministers toward the great soldier and patriot, who was the idol of the country, and whose immortal memory is ever fresh in the hearts of his countrymen. What has the "narrow, jealous, envious, disappointed, time-serving, pap-sucking, crawling and preposterous person of the editorial Custom-house" got to say to any just rebuke of an assailant of Gen. Grant? Has he "got it in" for the memory of the foremost conqueror of the slaveholder's rebellion?

SENATE BILL No. 555, introduced by Senator Matthews (by request) is a measure which undoubtedly covers a job to bleed the public treasury, and it should die the death. It takes the sales of property under foreclosure out of the hands of the sheriff and gives them into the hands of a commissioner to be appointed in each case by the court. The commissioner is to receive a fee not exceeding that now allowed on a sheriff's sale, which, we believe, is 5 per cent. The important difference is that, whereas all fees of this kind are now covered into the county treasury (the sheriff receiving a salary), under the proposed law these fees would go to private individuals. The county would be done out of a large revenue, while the sheriff would draw the same pay as at present. The Supervisors of this county have properly telegraphed to our representatives in the Legislature asking them to oppose the measure as materially injurious to the public interest. It is one of the grab bills introduced late in the session, probably in the hope of its being smuggled through without attracting much attention. Senator Matthews should not permit himself to be imposed upon by jobbers. He owes it to his constituents to right himself upon this iniquitous proposition.

An audience of five or six hundred people at Santa Ana was addressed one evening of last week by Max Meyberg of this city on the systems and advantages of building associations. Mr. Meyberg is president of the Metropolitan Building and Loan Association of Los Angeles, which is said to be the most successful organization of its kind in the State, and he is, therefore, well qualified to give pointers to those who contemplate forming such associations. There is no question that these cooperative enterprises, when honestly and judiciously conducted, are good things for the individuals whom they assist in saying their earnings, and good things for a city at large, which they help to build up. The Metropolitan Building and Loan Association has about $400,000 of assets, nearly all of which has gone into the building of residences in this city. There are other local organizations which are working in the same line, and their joint efforts have gone a long way toward making Los Angeles the city of homes that it is.

Gov. PENROSE of Oregon is to the fore with a political opinion. Concerning the selection of Judge Gresham for Secretary of State, he says: "It would accord with the eternal fitness of things if Mr. Cleveland, who bolted and disregarded the wishes of the regular Democratic organization of New York regarding a candidate for the Presidency, should confer a Cabinet appointment on Mr. Gresham, who bolted the nomination of his party. Such an appointment would be a premium on bolting conferred by the bolter." There is a man after Tammany's own heart!

The constant and frantic effort of the Osbornian Express is to try to convict The Times of "treason," not to the Republican party, but to some individual Republican office-holders whom we refuse to fall down and worship. Well, so be it! We are indifferent to such a charge. But what about the political consistency and integrity of that journalistic weather-vane, the oscillating Express? What has it to say in defense of its career—once "neutral," then Greenback-Labor, with Democratic tendencies; then Confederate Democratic; then alleged "Independent"; then weak and wobbly Republican, with pap-sucking tendencies, and always, under its later administration, for revenue only?

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.
COMING ATTRACTION.—Monday, the 27th inst., the gentle Willie Nye, more commonly known as Bill, will appear at the Grand Opera-house, in conjunction with A. P. Burbank, a famous monologist, who has great fame as a laugh-raiser. Mr. Nye is well known to need other means than the bare announcement that he is due to arrive. The populace therefore should not lose sight of the fact that the meek and gentle Bill's unfeigned home of thought will loom up on the stage of the Grand on the day and date first above written.

SACRAMENTO.

An African in the Los Angeles Woodpile.

A Scheme for the Appointment of Court Commissioners That Looks Much Like a Job-Our Supervisors on the Alert.

Special Correspondence of The Times.
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21, 1893.—Each member of the Los Angeles delegation today received the following telegram: Resolved by the Los Angeles delegation, that the Los Angeles delegation oppose Senate Bill No. 555, a largely detrimental to county interests. J. W. Cook, Chairman Board of Supervisors.

SENATE BILL No. 555 and House Bill No. 392 are similar. In the Senate it is second reading, having come from the Judiciary Committee with a favorable recommendation. In the House it is on the third reading file, and would have been liable to pass had not the Los Angeles Supervisors been on the alert. The bill, as amended in the Senate, is as follows: An act to amend section 729 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add a new section thereto, to be known as section 729, relating to actions for the foreclosure of mortgages.

The people of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows: Section 729 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 729. There can be but one action for the recovery of any debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real estate or personal property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this section. In such action, the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The court may, at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the incumbered property, if it appear from the sheriff's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage, and that the mortgagee has a lien on the property under the mortgage, and a balance will remain due the mortgagee, or having a lien thereon, conveyance or lien does not appear of the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action, and the court may, by its judgment, direct a sale of the incumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the appointment of a commissioner to receive the proceeds of the sale, and to pay the same to the mortgagee or to the person entitled to the proceeds of the sale, and to the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiffs. The Question Passed Upon by the Supreme Court.

An Opinion Handed Down in the Burbidge-Lemmer Case.

The Judgment and Order of the Lower Court Affirmed.

A Written Agreement on the Part of Mortgagees to Pay the Tax Declared Unconstitutional, and Burbidge Loses.

Deputy Clerk Session received three opinions from the Supreme Court yesterday for filing. In this city, one of which is of unusual importance, as in it that body, for the first time, passes upon the much mooted question of the mortgage tax. The opinion referred to is that of Commissioner Van Cleave, with whom Commissioners Temple and Haynes concur, and reads as follows:

Sarah R. Burbidge (Appellant) vs. P. H. Lemmer (Respondent). The plaintiff, a mortgagee on real property to secure the payment of a promissory note, dated January 20, 1889, for $13,000, made by defendant, payable to plaintiff or order five years after date, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, payable annually, and, if not so paid annually, then the whole principal and interest to become immediately due and payable at the option of the holder of the note. Defendant failed to pay interest for the first year, and about six months after it became due (September 1, 1890), this action to foreclose for both principal and interest was commenced.

The answer of the defendant denied that the principal or any interest thereon had ever become due on said note or mortgage, by reason of the facts affirmatively alleged in the answer, as follows: For a second and separate defense, the defendant alleges: That, at the city and county of Los Angeles, California, on January 20, 1889, at the time of the execution of the note and mortgage hereinbefore set forth, the plaintiff demanded of defendant the execution of the agreement hereinafter set forth as a part of said note and mortgage, and in accordance with said demand, defendant, with the said W. C. Pursey, at said city, on said January 20, A. D. 1889, at the time of the execution of said note and mortgage, and as a part thereof, executed and delivered to plaintiff an agreement in writing and in the words and figures following, to wit:

Southern California National Bank, Los Angeles (Cal.), Jan. 20, 1889. It is hereby agreed by P. H. Lemmer, as principal, and W. C. Pursey, surety, that in consideration of Mrs. Sarah R. Burbidge lending to P. H. Lemmer the sum of twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars at 10 per cent. interest, we, the undersigned, agree to and bind ourselves and our assigns and heirs to pay all taxes of whatever nature which may be assessed against said mortgage of twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars, and that Mrs. Sarah R. Burbidge or her assigns shall be to no costs or expense on account of taxes on said mortgage.

P. H. LEMMER, Principal.

W. C. PURSEY, Surety.

Witness: H. M. RUSSELL.

The court found all these affirmative allegations in the answer to be true, and, as a conclusion of law therefrom, found: "That the written agreement set forth in the defendant's answer was, and is, in contravention of sec. 5 of art. 13, of the Constitution of this State, and renders null and void all the provisions of the said note and mortgage as to the payment of any interest specified therein, and, consequently, that no interest ever accrued or became due, so as to give plaintiff the right, by election, to treat the principal as due prior to the expiration of five years from the date of the note, and thereupon rendered judgment dismissing plaintiff's complaint.

Plaintiff appeals from the judgment, and also from an order denying her motion for a new trial.

1. It is contended by counsel for appellant that the findings of fact as to the instrument set out in the answer by which defendant agreed to pay the taxes on the mortgage, are not justified by the evidence. It is claimed that this instrument was not demanded by plaintiff by plea, and was not executed at the same time the note and mortgage were executed, nor as a part of the same transaction. Upon these issues the evidence is conflicting, but the court, in its opinion, is of the opinion that the evidence is sufficient to justify the findings of the court. The evidence touching these issues is not material, and the court is of the opinion that the evidence is sufficient to justify the findings of the court.

2. The mortgage contains the same provision as the note as to the consequence of a failure to pay the annual interest, and also authorized the mortgagee, if necessary, to protect the mortgage by selling the property to insure it, and to pay the taxes thereon, other than the taxes of this mortgage, or the money hereby secured; and provides that the mortgagee, at the interest at same rate, shall be deemed to be secured by the mortgage. Counsel for appellant contends that the express exception of the taxes on the mortgage from the taxes which the mortgagee may pay and recover from the mortgagor, with the conventional interest, is inconsistent with a stipulation in the same mortgage that the mortgagor is, nevertheless, to pay the taxes on the mortgage; that is to say, it is inconsistent for mortgagor and mortgagee to agree that the latter may pay the taxes on the interest of the mortgagor in the land, and recover it back with interest, and, at the same time, agree that the mortgagor shall pay the taxes on the mortgage of the interest in the land.

That the latter part of the agreement is unlawful is clear, but that the two parts of the agreement are necessarily inconsistent with each other, I am unable to perceive. But however this may be, all the provisions of the mortgage, including the concurrent agreement that the mortgagee should pay the taxes on the mortgage, must be read together, and seeming inconsistencies reconciled if they can be without violence to the language, for the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties.

If, when thus read and construed, the intention be found to be clear and certain, such intention must prevail, though the agreement be thereby rendered unlawful.

The agreement that the mortgagor should pay the taxes on the mortgage was prepared with distinct care and deliberation, and a surety was made to sign it, and its language is so unequivocal and certain as to the intent that the mortgagor should pay the taxes on the mortgage, that there is no doubt that such was the intention of the parties.

This view of the case renders all other points discussed by counsel immaterial. Judgment and order affirmed.

TWO OTHER CASES.

The other cases decided are as follows:

Frazier (respondent) vs. Lynch et al. (appellants). Action to recover possession of certain land in San Diego county, with damages for the withholding therefrom, in which defendants assign as one of the errors committed at the trial that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the verdict, in that it failed to show that they were in possession of the land sued for, which is the very essence of the action. The Supreme Court, after reviewing the evidence in this respect, holds that the trial court erred in instructing the jury, as follows: "If from all the evidence in this case you should find that a few days before the commencement of this action the defendants, or some or any of them, were upon the premises described in the complaint, or entered thereon and ordered and drove plaintiff and her agents and employees off from said premises, and prevented them from plowing said premises by threats or force, such acts on the part of such defendant or defendants, were acts of possession on the part of such defendant, and if there is any evidence to the contrary you have a right to presume, and to find that such defendant or defendants were in possession of the said real estate at the time of the commencement of this action."

The possession of the land, says the opinion, by defendants was a fact to be shown by the plaintiff, and while it may be sufficient in some cases to show a constructive, as contradistinguished from an actual, possession, the fact that the plaintiff, by its commission until any subsequent date, nor should the jury have been permitted to infer the possession of the defendants from the fact that they had previously committed a trespass upon the possession of the plaintiff. Judgment and order reversed.

Rehearing denied, but judgment modified, except that part thereof disallowing claim of Ella V. Haas; as to that part affirmed.

LACROSSE.

The Riverside-Los Angeles Match Easily Won by the Visitors.

The locals out-classed all along the line, and defeated without getting a goal—only one chance to score during the play.

The lacrosse match between the Riverside and local teams, which was played at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, did not prove so strong an attraction as had been expected, not more than three hundred people being in attendance, nor was the sport, provided of as high an order as the people had been led to expect.

This, however, was not the fault of the visiting team, who won the game by two goals to nothing, as the Riverside players played well together, and showed a decided superiority over their opponents in almost all their individual plays. The local boys, on the contrary, with two or three exceptions, appeared to have but one idea, judging from the play, viz., that of watching their individual opponents instead of the ball. The consequence was that in almost every instance when one of the home team got the ball and made a run with it, there was no one upon his side to receive it, and the sphere was speedily returned whence it came by the more alert Riverside players, who by this means kept it dangerously near the goal almost all the time. But for the splendid work of Goal-keeper Satterwhite, who proved to be a host in himself, the score must have been much more disastrous, as the ball was in his territory at more frequent intervals than it should have been.

The Riverside goal-keeper, a stout gentleman, whose weight would have precluded the possibility of his taking any very active part in the game, was, on the other hand, not called upon to exert his strength, his only function being that of standing between the posts of his goal and watching the battle from afar, except upon one occasion, in the first half, when McKenzie, after a desperate struggle, tried for a goal but missed it by a hair's breadth.

Neither side, scored in the first half of the game, although both claimed goals, which were disallowed, but in the second half, the Riverside warmed up to their work, and their opponents went to pieces after they had lost a goal in the short period of two and one-half minutes' play.

A second goal was claimed half an hour later, but was disallowed by the referee, and before the game was resumed, some of the players and many of the spectators, supposing time had been called, left the grounds. Five minutes later, however, the Riverside made good their claim by scoring beyond a doubt, and the game resulted, as above stated, in a victory by a score of 2 to 0.

The teams were made up as follows:

NEW Capes; the new ideas for spring, they are here in abundance. New Coats with military capes; they are the newest yet. Capes and Jackets. You had better discard your old cloak and take a peep at the new ideas, the new styles. Wraps that make the ladies feel comfortable because they are new, a little different from what has been. Small Coats for little tots 4 to 12 years of age. Bright reds, navy blue, grays, tans, greens, this is the way the colors are running. Butterfly Capes, butterfly collars; what ingenious "critters" these Yankees are, no sooner one thing is considered the latest when along comes something else more so; it keeps buying at the front. You can't wear an old garment without everybody knowing it. All-wool Capes as low as $5.00. All-wool Blazers as low as $3.00; Children's Coats, big collars, neatly trimmed, $4.00, just the thing to hide an old dress or a hole in the sleeve. And from cloaks we go to Dress Goods; the biggest and best dress goods stock in all Los Angeles; crowds are at the counters that are piled high up with new styles for the spring trade—25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 45c, 50c, this is the way the prices range on up to $1 a yard; we stop to get our breath at a dollar a yard. The variety seems to be all that any one could think of. What is stylish in dress goods? Think of it, and scarcely any two ladies dressed alike, and every one of them just as stylish as they can be; it would never do to say otherwise. Plaid and Illuminated Surah Silks, new; fine Illuminated Shot Silks, still newer. Finest All-silk Velvets at a dollar a yard; every shade under the shining sun. Illuminated Dress Goods as low as 35c, on up and up to silk and wool effects at a dollar and a half a yard. The dress goods trade is multiplying; it is the busiest dress goods counter in the city. Samples for comparison at any time. More new things in Gingham; still newer ideas in Sateens. French Penangs and Wash Dress Goods of every kind and style. The trade of this house is very much larger than a year ago; it is bounding up every week. Selling out the Shoe Department; you can save from 50c to $2 a pair.

Hypnotic Bargains

It's no use talking, people know a good thing when they see it! Latter part of last week we advertised something like this:

"A Make-Room Clearance Sale."

And in so doing we advertised bargains—better still, we gave bargains. The alacrity with which discerning men caught on made us feel good. Success has fringed us up to a still higher pitch. What think you of $20 for a selection from a choice line of genuine Imported SCOTCH SUITINGS that sold from $25 to $35? Well, they're yours until March 1st.

We Must Have Room for Spring Stock.

Just now we've got the "cleaning-out" fever pretty bad—you'd better take advantage of it while it lasts.

Clark's Cutaway Harrow!

The Reversible Harrow is Designed for Orchard Work.

The A-6 Reversible, when used with extension head, measures nine feet wide (see cut) and cultivates well under the trees, throwing dirt over to the side. While the width is increased the draft is not, because the gangs are merely separated. It will pulverize the soil to the depth required and destroy all weeds and trash, thoroughly mixing them with the soil, thereby protecting the roots and retaining the moisture. We heartily recommend it to all fruit-growers as being the most serviceable tool in the market. For price lists and circulars address

Health Officers Speak.

City, State and National Authorities report the Royal Baking Powder in every way Superior to all others.

STATE CHEMIST, CALIFORNIA: The ROYAL fulfils all the requirements. Our tests show it has greater leavening power than any other.

STATE CHEMIST, WASHINGTON: There is no question but the ROYAL is the strongest, purest and most wholesome baking powder in the market.

U. S. GOV'T FOOD REPORT: ROYAL BAKING POWDER is shown a pure cream of tartar powder, highest of all in leavening strength.

CANADIAN OFFICIAL TESTS: ROYAL BAKING POWDER is commended as of highest excellence, and shown to be greatest of all in leavening strength.

SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF HEALTH: We cordially approve and recommend the ROYAL BAKING POWDER. It is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients, of the highest strength and character.

BOARD OF HEALTH, SEATTLE, WASHINGTON: Finding in analysis that it is entirely free from any adulteration, we heartily recommend the ROYAL BAKING POWDER for its great strength, purity and wholesomeness.

BOARD OF HEALTH, TACOMA, WASHINGTON: In our judgment the ROYAL is the best and strongest baking powder before the public.

BOARD OF HEALTH, SPOKANE: Certainly there is no baking powder known to us equal to the ROYAL.

DR. BINSWANGER, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON: It is also my opinion that there exists no purer, better or stronger baking powder than the ROYAL. I confidently recommend it.

Do not permit the slanderous stories of interested parties to influence you in using any other than The Best, The Royal.

PHRENOLOGY.

A Difficult Feat Performed by Prof.

Prof. N. N. Riddell delivered the second lecture of his course before a fair-sized audience last evening on the subject of "Mind and Matter."

He gave an extremely interesting and instructive dissertation on mental faculties, their interrelation and coordination, and explained why different people will think differently and come to different conclusions on a proposition presented alike to all.

At the close of his lecture Prof. Riddell performed a difficult feat in phrenology and one that he alone has thus far attempted. He allowed himself to be blindfolded, and then two gentlemen from the audience took seats on the platform.

By feeling their craniums he was able to describe their facial characteristics, height, build, color of hair and complexion, and then described their mental characteristics.

After this the gentlemen took seats in the audience, and Prof. Riddell, upon removing the bandage from his eyes, went down into the audience and picked out his subjects. The feat was well done and elicited a hearty round of applause.

Tonight Prof. Riddell will talk about physiognomy—telling how to read character from faces.

THIS WAY, STU-E-T AND CURIST. No student should miss the historical object lesson now being set forth by the Society for the Preservation of the Missions of California through the aid of models, photos and belongings with stereoscopic views and authentic descriptions by those familiar with the records and ruins. The society has special facilities for obtaining accurate information, and hopes by this presentation to attract the presence of those hitherto at the mercy of guides, loquacious or tactless, but a ways ignorant. What shall we do to this evening? Hear and see all about San Juan Capistrano, San Gabriel and San Fernando, 221 South Broadway.

How to Make H. men Happy. Those who contemplate building should provide during construction for a Hot Air Furnace. For estimates on this kind of work call at P. E. Brown's, 314 S. Spring st., who makes this a specialty.

MORSEBARDISH Stephens, Mott Mar ket.

A HANDSOME complexion is one of the greatest charms a woman can possess. Posson's Complexion Powder gives it.

DESMOND the Hatter placed on sale today his spring and summer style material hats; also latest novelties in men's furnishings.

MOTHERS be sure and always use Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for your children while teething. It is the best of all.

WALL-PAPER, paints, oils, etc., cheap 24 S. Main street. A. G. Godfrey.

VISITING CARDS engraved Lang stadtler, 214 West Second street. Tel. 104.

NEW AND OLD books, magazines, etc. Book Exchange, cor. Second and Main.

FIRE-PROOF safe for sale. Gardner & Oliver, Book Store, 104 South Spring.

"PHYSIOGNOMY" or the human face and how to read it, printed page by Prof. Riddell, at Y.M.C.A. Hall this evening. Admission free.

THE WORLD'S FARE

DR. HONG SOI has graduated and received his diploma from medical schools and Universities in Hong Kong, China. He is the sixth of a generation of doctors in his family, and has made a study of all diseases of the human body. The doctor has had wide experience as a physician, and during his long stay of six years in Los Angeles, he has made many skillful cures. The doctor cures CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, ASTHMA, CLARK'S, SICK HEADACHE, INDIGESTION, WALKER'S and NERVOUS TROUBLES, and ALL DISEASES that the human body is heir to, by natural herb medicine, freshly prepared every day. No opium or poisonous drugs are used. For two months he suffered with pain in the bladder. Three doctors treated me, each one giving a different cause for the trouble, but doing me no good. Took Dr. Hong Soi's medicine for two weeks and was entirely relieved of all pain. H. H. MORSE, Los Angeles, January 14, 1893.

DID YOU EVER

Stop to consider the vast amount of merchandise we carry? If not, come and pay us a visit and look through our mammoth establishment; it will certainly be a treat. Strangers visiting Los Angeles find their way to our establishment, and all of them express their surprise at the large assortment of goods we carry, and at the close prices we sell them. It is a common daily occurrence to hear the ladies say, "Way, they sell goods as cheap here as they do in New York," and why not? We buy our goods from first hands, and buy in quantities which enables us to retail goods at jobbers' prices. This is not mere idle talk, but solid, substantial facts. A dollar spent in our establishment goes farther than $1.25 elsewhere. We would also like to impress upon your minds that cheap, trashy goods find no resting place in our establishment. "Good goods at the lowest possible price," is our motto.

Dress Goods.

We have opened a new line of Spring Serges. These goods are all wool and 40 inches wide, and we can safely say that no such value has ever been offered before. Our price is 50c a yard.

We also have a very handsome line of Spring Novelty Suitings. These goods are among the early arrivals and we have decided to close them out rapidly. They are 40 in. wide, in very neat check effects, and will be sold for 50c a yard. We have about eight pieces of 84-inch all-wool Spring Suitings; it takes about 5 yards to make a dress; the designs are all good; our price is 50c a yard.

We feel highly flattered at the way our Novelty Dress Goods are selling, while we have not yet received a one-fourth part of them, and we have only about one-half of the first shipment received left. It is very hard to describe the new styles as no two are alike. It is sufficient to say that we have the handsomest line that has ever been brought into this city, and our prices, as usual, are the lowest.

In Silks the new plaid effects take the lead this season. They will be used mainly in making waists. We are showing a very pretty line of them. In India Silks we make a specialty of our 80-inch goods at 70c a yard. We have them in both light and dark effects, and they are equal to anything sold in this city at $1.00.

DOMESTICS

We have been kept very busy opening new goods for this department. The very latest thing shown are the Satin Glories. These goods are made in perfect imitation of the silks, and it is hard to tell them apart when they are made up. Outing flannels will be more popular than ever this season. The prices vary according to the quality of the goods. Have you seen our new Crinkled Scotch Ginghams? We consider them the handsomest that have ever been shown; these goods are being sold extensively in the East at 50c a yard; our price will be 37½c.

Our Linen Department offers nothing but sterling values. We are offering a 60-inch bleached or unbleached Table Damask of a superior quality at 50c a yard, which cannot be duplicated under 65c. In Damask Towels we have, without doubt, the best values ever offered. We buy these, like everything else, in quantities.

Cloak Dept.

The first arrival of new Spring Cloaks came in today. Among them you will find a handsome line of Triple Cape Jackets, which will be all the rage this season. They come in both tan, navy blue and black. In the plain jackets we also have a large assortment. Our prices are lower by far than any place else in town. We will be pleased to have you come in and look at them, and we feel confident that we can suit you.

Drug Dept.

The sale of Dr. Koch's celebrated Cough Cure has been enormous. As yet we have failed to receive back one empty bottle, which simply goes to show that it does all that is claimed for it. I you are troubled with a cough or cold we would earnestly advise you to try a bottle, and in case the cure is not effected we will cheerfully refund you the money. We also carry in this department a complete line of Toilet Articles, Perfumes and Patent Medicines, all of which are sold at a much lower price than can be bought elsewhere.

Hosiery Dept.

Trade in this department is increasing daily, for we give the best values that can be found. Being entirely out of our ladies' fast black hose which we generally sold for 25c, we have decided, until we have a new invoice, to place our entire line, which we always sell for 35c, and which are positively the best hose manufactured, and which we guarantee for 30c a pair. We have a large line of Ladies' Fancy Colored Hose which we have always sold for 75c a pair, which are desirous of closing out and which will be placed on sale at 3 pairs for $1.00.

MILLINERY DEPT.

We would like to call the attention of the ladies to the fact that our new Spring Millinery will be on display in a short time. The goods are coming in daily and are being placed in stock as rapidly as possible. Due notice will be given when they are ready for inspection.
